Chicago, IL 60640

Steep yourself in the rich culture, fascinating artistic traditions, vibrant history, and linguistic variety found in one of the most beautiful places in the Americas. The city of Oaxaca and its surroundings will serve as our living classroom for a 9-day Institute focused on language, culture, and art. As a UNESCO World Heritage Site, Oaxaca will deeply affect the way you approach curriculum and instruction and how you view the cultural and linguistic assets that students bring to their learning. We invite you to join us for this unforgettable experience.

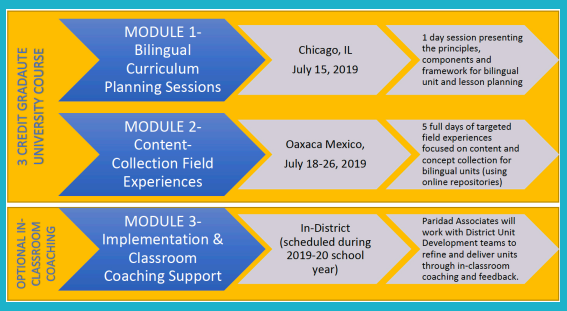
Curriculum Content Collection Field Experiences and Site-based Projects with Featured Artists

During the nine-day Institute, we will visit archaeological sites, the studios of world-recognized artists, local artisans, colorful indigenous markets, and unique cultural museums—all within this magnificent colonial city. The presentations, activities, and field experiences will be guided by education experts, language scholars, and celebrated Oaxacan artists. Each field experience will focus on linguistically and cultural appropriate themes and topics related to art, and language integration. Participants will capture, amplify, and share their content collection experiences through the use of a variety of technologies.



Please join us for this transformative learning experience!

For periodic updates regarding the Institute and our featured speakers, please visit our Oaxaca page at www.paridad.us/laclave

"This has been an incredibly introspective experience. I've been challenged in many ways and have had to dig deep to really understand what all of this has meant to me both personally and professionally."

"It was mind blowing! I'm so grateful for the visits to see the artists and cannot wait to share the experiences with my students and connect with them. I have so much pride for their culture and feel blessed to access it . . ."

Institute Staff

John F. Hilliard

President & Co-founder, Paridad Education Consulting

John has devoted his professional career to bringing parity to the field of education, hence the origin of the name Paridad. Throughout his 25 years in education, he has played a variety of roles, from award-winning bilingual teacher, to university instructor, to nationally recognized professional developer. More importantly, John brings his deep expertise, enthusiasm, and love of all things Oaxaca to our Institute.

Margo Gottlieb

Lead Developer, World-Class Instructional Design and Assessment (WIDA) Consortium, IL

Margo is an internationally recognized expert and author in the assessment of language learners. She is also the Lead Developer, for the World-Class Instructional Design and Assessment (WIDA) Consortium.

Cristina Sanchez-Lopez

Senior Associate

Cristina deeply enjoys collaborating with practitioners in developing instruction, intervention and assessment for multilingual learners. In addition. She derives great satisfaction from teaching graduate courses for in-service teacherson biliteracy, assessment, and foundations of language minority education. She has delivered graduate courses for American educators visiting Oaxaca over the last 15 years.

Carlos Perez

Associate

Carlos has a unique bicultural and bilingual vantage point on the culture of Mexico and the U.S. He is a dual national that has family homes in both countries. From this binational perspective he has developed a strong passion for sharing the hidden marvels of culture, food, art and architecture of his own Mexican roots. As an Illinois educator, he has focused on the development of Dual Language programming at his own district.
